October Roebling DE - Conclusion of 2009 DE Season Launches New Student of Performance Driving

Roebling Road - by Dave Borinski

Our October DE at Roebling Road concluded the 2009 season of Citrus hosted DEs with a little excitement. Ross Evers took control of the event in preparation for becoming the 2010 DE Chair as Dave Borinski is retiring from the position. But the real excitement came from Ross's daughter Jessica Sibbald who caught the attention of many drivers, including seasoned organizers. Jessica's raw driving talent and enthusiasm created a welcome stir among organizers and fellow drivers.

Challenge Rally for Russell Home

Sunday Nov 15th

The Annual Challenge Rally is a charity, fun-rally to benefit the Russell Home for Children. At the 2008 event, we raised over $4700. You will be given the chance to drive your car through some of the best roads and unspoiled areas in N. Central Florida. Come join your fellow European car enthusiasts while raising money for Charity (Audi, BMW, Jaguar, Mercedes, Bentley, Lamborghini and Ferrari folks are being invited). There will be door prizes and awards for a variety of categories.

Rally Master Bill Davis

This year's event is hosted by your FL Citrus Porsche Club. Past Rallies have been won by Porsche because we have had the most cars sign up and run in support of this great charity. Last year however, BMWs edged out Porsches by one car! The Challenge this year will be to not only continue our support of the Russell Home but again have the most cars at the rally!

Presidents Update

You are looking at the "new" Spiel, more readable and in color! It's the prototype issue and Travis Young, Spiel Editor, will be developing it over the coming months. We welcome Travis and give him a big Thank You for bringing our newsletter into the 21st century. Due to space limitations in this new format we weren't able to get everything in that we wanted but more pages and articles are planned for the future.

The Challenge Rally is Sunday, Nov. 15th and is our 23rd annual event to benefit the Russell Home for Atypical Children. Please sign up (entry form enclosed) for a fun run and help Porsche win the trophy for most cars entered (we lost last year to BMW).

Our 35th Anniversary/Holiday Dinner, scheduled Sunday, Dec. 6th at the downtown Marriott is in the final planning stages. Details will be broadcast very soon.

Finally, more big Thank Yous to Bert Del Villano and his crew of volunteers for conducting a great OktoberFast event at Daytona with the Crown Region, and to Dave Borinski and his staff for another fun and safe Roebing Road DE.

- Chuck

OktoberFast at Daytona

4th Annual OktoberFast - by Bert DelVillano

Florida Citrus and Florida Crown Regions teamed up to host the fourth OktoberFast at Daytona International Speedway, sponsored by Porsche of Melbourne. Nearly 150 drivers, hundreds of volunteers, as well as PCA staffers and SCCA workers combined to make this year's event another success. All who came enjoyed PCA club races, a DE, an autocross, Drive 'n' Dine tours to Daytona followed by a Panamera launch reception, and a Saturday social for drivers and volunteers.

Club Racers from throughout the Southeast went wheel to wheel in a series of Sprint Races and a 90 minute Enduro on the world famous Rolex course. The Saturday races featured a new Panamera, provided by Porsche of Melbourne, directly behind the pace car and leading a pack of GT2, GT3, and race prepared Porsches. What a thrill to have been in the pace car with Jeff Phillips snapping photos of the colorful group of racers. A vast crew worked like a well lubed machine to make sure the races came off on time. Huge thanks to Nick Grynkowitz for grid, Dora Barrens for timing, Bob Barrens for the information desk, Anne Del Villano for assisting the Stewards, Sid Collins for managing Tech, and Ken Perry for arranging lunches, Genie Evers for recruiting the volunteers.

A smaller group of advanced solo drivers had an opportunity to enjoy a Drivers Ed on the same course. As was for the club race, eager workers made the event fun and safe. Special thanks to Richard Hook who managed registration and tech'd most of the cars, Kevin Duffy who served as Steward of the Meet, and Ron Zitza, Chief Driving Instructor, who shared his extensive experience with the DE drivers, allowing them to not only learn the intricacies of DIS, but more importantly, to learn better driving techniques.

As an extra this year, we hosted a two day autocross on the DIS "go kart" track. Drivers ran 2 different courses, one on Saturday and different one on Sunday. Thanks to Gary Merideth for arranging to get timing equipment from Central Florida SCCA, Eric Mertz, and all who helped set up and manage the races. (cont page 5)

Garage Day at Kerry's

by Kerry Flankey Photos by Cindy Anderson

"The Garage Day was fun. Several seasoned members came and also it was the first event for a couple of people. There wasn't much work that needed to be done on anyone's cars, so we worked on a couple of mine. We wheeled out my 71 Targa and demonstrated the rotisserie by raising the car and spinning it around. Then we moved into the garage and started working on our 1949 Riley RM. It has a stuck intake valve. We took the hood off and the carbs and exhaust. Removed the rocker arms, head bolts and removed the head. It was fun and easy with a lot of helping hands".

Thanks Kerry Flankey for putting on another Club event at your great ranch!

ALMS - American LeMans Series

(articles/photos excerpted from Jill Beck email)

MONTEREY, Calif. - October 10 - Joerg Bergmeister (Germany) and Patrick Long (USA) capped a successful 2009 American Le Mans Series season by winning their sixth race of the season, capturing the ALMS GT2 drivers, manufacturers, and team championships, as well as helping Porsche to earn its 100th class win in the American Le Mans Series in the four-hour endurance event for the Monterey Sports Car Championships at Mazda Laguna Seca Raceway. Bergmeister, who took over the driving chores from Long for the final stint in his #45 Flying Lizard Porsche 911 GT3 RSR, ran nose-to-tail with the #3 Corvette's Jan Magnussen for the lead during the last 20 minutes of the race, holding off the more powerful Corvette despite a vibration from a flat-spotted tire.

GRAND-AM Rolex Series

(articles/photos excerpted from Jill Beck email)

HOMESTEAD, FL - October 10 - The Brumos Porsche Riley scored a stunning bookend victory in the Grand Prix of Miami and Leh Keen (Charleston, SC) and Dirk Werner (Germany) led the #87 Farnbacher Loles Racing Porsche 911 GT3 Cup team to a clean sweep of the three Axiom GT class championships in the Grand-Am Rolex Sports Car Series finale at Homestead-Miami Speedway. Joao Barbosa (Portugal) made a strong pass on the backstretch banking with less than 28 minutes remaining in the 2 hour, 30 minute race, drafting his #59 Brumos Porsche Riley into the lead over Scott Pruett's Lexus Riley.

And even though the race ended under caution, Barbosa was never seriously threatened for the lead and claimed his first Daytona Prototype victory. The victory helped Porsche improve one position to runner-up to Ford in the Grand-Am Rolex Daytona Prototype Manufacturer championship standings. Keen and Werner entered the final race with a solid 30-point lead in the Axiom GT driver's championships, and each driver needed only to complete the mandatory 30-minute stint to clinch the title. It's Keen's first and Werner's second GT championship in the last three years. The 911 GT3 Cup also won the Axiom GT Team Championship and helped Porsche clinch the Rolex Grand-Am GT Manufacturer's title. Keen and Werner were the top finishing Porsche GT teams in nine of the 12 GT races this year. TRG fielded the top finishing GT Porsche in three events.

The following is an account of Jessica's experience as a first time DEer.

"Pulling up to the hotel on Friday evening was quite intimidating; the parking lot at the Cambria Suites was full of various models of Porsches, as well as other makes of vehicles, all designated with random numbers indicative of participation in the weekend to come. The next two days were to be dedicated to Driver's Education at Roebing Road.

Waking up at 6am Saturday morning, my husband and I were greeted by a large group of fellow trackmates, including my dad, in the hotel lobby. A delicious breakfast awaited us, yet my excitement and butterflies about the day to come, kept me from indulging. Everyone was talking the language of the road – "heel-toe," "turn-in," "track-out" – all terms that I would become intimately involved with during my Driver's Education experience.

Entering the track on Day One, it became increasingly real; I would soon be driving 100+ mph. And this was legal! Awesome.

But first, before said speed could be attained, every car was thoroughly inspected and "tech-ed" to standard specifications. Each participant's helmet was also checked for compliance with safety standards. It was obvious that safety was the number one priority of this event. I very quickly noticed that fun ran close second.

After a brief overview of the events to come, we were all divided into our respective groups – novices, like myself, were placed in the Green Group; others went with the Blue, White, Black & Red Groups. This allowed for us newbies to enjoy some classroom time, reviewing the very basics of driving, while the more experienced drivers were able to get some track-time without us causing traffic jams.

In class, we received a booklet with a wealth of information, ranging from general track rules and flag definitions, to the step-by-step instructions of how to "heel-toe." And imagine trying to pay attention, hearing the pros whipping around the 9-turn track! I couldn't wait to get behind the wheel!

And then I heard "Green Group to the Grid." It was go-time. Our first experience on Roebing Road was limited to 80 mph, and we were accompanied by our assigned instructors who would remain paired with us throughout the weekend. Once inside the car, a 1974 Porsche 911, the butterflies flew out the window. I was now actually learning to drive on the track. Again – awesome.

For the rest of the weekend, our Green Group alternated class-time with track-time. This included a tour around the track where we piled in a variety of vehicles, getting out at every turn to go over those aforementioned terms, discussing the uniqueness and intricacies of every one. Be sure to pay close attention at Turn 5 (when you go, you'll thank me). When I stopped thinking about the awesomeness of driving enough to remember to eat, there was plenty to choose from at the track-side food stand. And did I mention the amazing BBQ dinner Saturday night? Bring family and friends and dig in! There was so much food! My husband and I sat and talked with many other drivers during this social event – everyone who participated was so friendly! And let's be honest - driving was ALL we talked about over meals. After our final drive of the weekend, our instructors handed us our evaluations. These were used to assess our individual strengths & weaknesses on the track. The constructive assessment of my performance was priceless.

Despite my initial intimidation, I was extremely impressed with the Driver's Education at Roebing Road. The instructors were professional, very personable, and provided an immeasurable wealth of knowledge in driving. For those who really want to learn their cars, to feel the road, to experience the capabilities of their driving machines – Driver's Education is for you. I'll see you there!"
